THE MANAGER

Ongoing execution by people who already know who you are.

TAILORED · REQUIRES A MANIFESTO

PRODUCT BROCHURE · 2026

BUILT ON PURPOSE

TWO THINGS HAPPEN AFTER YOU GET IT RIGHT

The first is drift.

Somebody writes a post in a hurry. A new hire describes the company a little differently on a sales call, and then so does the next one. A vendor makes something that is close but not quite you. Each one is small enough that nobody flags it. It takes about eighteen months, and then your material looks like anybody's again.

The second is the explaining.

Every time you hire an agency, a freelancer, or a marketing person, you spend the first three months teaching them who you are. Then they leave and you do it again. You are not paying for their work in that window. You are paying for their education.

THE MANAGER ANSWERS BOTH

We already did your discovery. We wrote your document. There is no ramp up, no onboarding call, and no round of revisions where we learn what you meant.

SOCIAL CONTENT

Graphics and copy written from your Manifesto, on a schedule you can count on, so your feed stops being something somebody remembers to do on Friday afternoon.

VIDEO PRODUCTION

Shot to the visual standard we already built with you, so new pieces match the old ones.

GRAPHIC DESIGN

Ads, one pagers, decks, print, trade show material, whatever the year throws at you.

FRACTIONAL CMO

A marketing leader in the room without one on payroll.

CONSULTING

The call you make before you launch the thing, hire the person, take the opportunity, or spend the money. We know your purpose well enough to tell you whether it fits.

BRAND UPKEEP

We keep your Brand File current so your AI tools stay on message, refresh the Plain Page as you grow, and review the Manifesto when your offering or direction changes.

Why brand upkeep quietly matters most. An out of date Brand File is worse than no Brand File at all. It produces confidently wrong work, at volume, faster than anyone on your team can catch it.

YOU APPROVE, YOU DO NOT CORRECT

Everything comes to you already checked against your own standard. That is the difference between a vendor and a firm that holds your document. You are not editing work back toward your company. It arrives there.

You get a specialist at every position and one phone number. We are the quarterback. If a partner misses, that is ours to fix and not yours to chase.

NOTIERS AND NO PACKAGES

We do not sell a silver, gold, and platinum version of this, because your year does not come in three sizes. Tell us what is coming. A busy season, a trade show, a new location, a hiring push, a capital campaign. We build the engagement around that and price it to what it actually takes.

WHO THIS IS FOR

YOU HAVE A MANIFESTO

Manager requires one. Managing communication for an organization with no written blueprint is the exact work we refuse.

YOU NEED OUTPUT, NOT A BUILD

What you are short of is consistent production rather than a one-time overhaul.

YOU CANNOT JUSTIFY A HIRE

A capable marketing director costs more than this and knows less about you on day one.

YOU ARE TIRED OF RE-EXPLAINING

You have onboarded three vendors in four years and taught all of them the same thing.

WHAT IT IS NOT

It is not media buying or paid ad management. It is not standalone search work. And it is not social media management for an organization whose purpose is not written down. If that is what you need, we will tell you where to go for it.

TELL US WHAT YOUR YEAR LOOKS LIKE

We will build the engagement around it. Manager is available after a Manifesto.
