

DISCOVER YOUR VALUE. SHARE IT WITH THE WORLD.

A strategic communications firm. Prepared for Your Company.

BUILT ON PURPOSE

WHAT OWNERS TELL US IN THE FIRST TWENTY MINUTES

"I KNOW WHAT MAKES US
DIFFERENT. I JUST CANNOT GET ANYONE ELSE TO SAY IT."

THE PROBLEM WE EXIST FOR

AN ORGANIZATION IS WORTH MORE THAN ANYONE CAN TELL.

And the gap is invisible to the person standing closest to it.

UNDERNEATH IT SIT FOUR PROBLEMS

YOU WILL RECOGNISE AT LEAST ONE

THE VALUE GAP

You do excellent work and present at a fraction of what you are. It is a consequence of success. You outgrew your explanation long before you outgrew your building.

THE DIVIDED HOUSE

The people at the top do not actually agree, and nobody has said so out loud.

THE CONFUSION TAX

Every person describes the company differently, and it costs money continuously without ever appearing as a line item.

THE WEIGHT THE LEADER CARRIES

It all still runs through one person, and he cannot put it down.

Every owner arrives naming one of those problems and living inside another.

It feels like a marketing problem, a hiring problem, a sales problem. It is one problem wearing four costumes. Naming the one underneath is where this conversation is going.

WHAT VALUE ACTUALLY IS

FOUR PARTS, AND THEY ARE NOT THE ROAD TO YOUR VALUE

They are your value. Take one away and there is less of you for a customer to receive.

PURPOSE

Why you exist.

IDENTITY

Who that makes you.

SERVICES

What you sell, and all you sell.

MESSAGE

Everything you communicate,
including your silences.

Nobody is missing any of them. Your value is never absent. It is only in working order, or in poor condition.

THE ENEMY HAS TWO FACES

ONE IS WHY THE WORK FAILS. ONE IS WHY IT NEVER GETS SAID OUT LOUD.

EXPRESSION WITHOUT PURPOSE

Content produced before meaning has been found. The video shot before anyone decided what it should say. AI accelerates it, because it can now produce infinite competent expression, in seconds, about nothing.

CLAIMS NOBODY CHECKED

Quieter, and it does more damage, because it does not produce bad work. It produces silence. An owner handed words he cannot verify will hedge, soften, and go back to saying nothing.

It is an enemy without malice. Nobody chooses it. Agencies drift toward it because expression invoices well. Owners drift toward it because expression is what they know how to ask for.

WHERE YOU CAN SEE BOTH

SIX SYMPTOMS

THE SERVICE LIST

A company that can list its services but cannot state its purpose.

THE FOUR ANSWERS

A leadership team that gives four different answers to what do we do.

THE SPEND

Marketing spend that produces activity and no movement.

THE GAP

A company whose people are better than its materials suggest.

THE FOUNDER

Talented, respected, and quietly convinced he is bad at this.

THE HEDGE

A leader who has the words, will not use them, and cannot tell you why.

THE ANTIDOTE

FIND IT.
VERIFY IT.
WRITE IT DOWN.

Then build everything from that one document. In that order, every time, without exception.

THE ORDER, STATED PLAINLY

PURPOSE › IDENTITY › STRATEGY › EXPRESSION

01

PURPOSE

Why you exist. Discovered, not assigned.

02

IDENTITY

Who that makes you, in writing.

03

STRATEGY

What to say, to whom,
and what to stop doing.

04

EXPRESSION

Cameras, design, web, print. Only now.

Most marketing begins at step four, because step four is the part that is easy to sell. It is also the last step.

A VIDEO SHOT BEFORE
ANYONE DECIDED WHAT IT SHOULD SAY IS AN EXPENSIVE GUESS.

And you will pay for it twice.

WHO WE ARE

A STRATEGIC COMMUNICATIONS FIRM, NOT A MARKETING AGENCY.

A MARKETING AGENCY SELLS

Expression. Websites, video, content, campaigns.

WE SELL

The decision that all of that is supposed to express.

Most of our category competes on production capability. We compete on whether the thing being produced was worth producing.

SO EVERY VENDOR YOU HIRE GUESSES

Your web designer decides what the company stands for, because he needs a headline.

Your video producer decides something different, because he needs an opening line.

Your new hire decides a third thing on a sales call. All sincere. None the same.

Three years later you own a pile of expensive material that does not agree, and you are still the only person who can explain the business.

WHAT WE START WITH

THE MANIFESTO

The written word of your organization, with the evidence behind every word. Everything you say and show gets built from it.

THE METHOD

NINE STEPS, NO SHORTCUTS

- 01 Meet everyone who holds a piece of the truth. Not just the owner.
- 02 Study the market as it actually is.
- 03 Read the competitors honestly, including where they are genuinely better.
- 04 Discover the purpose. Excavation, not brainstorming. It is already in your building.
- 05 Identify who you were built to serve, and who you were not.
- 06 Verify. Assemble the evidence before a word of it is written as language, and name what the evidence does not support.
- 07 Wordsmith. The gate everything depends on.
- 08 Synthesize every view into one position the whole team can state.
- 09 Hand over something usable, then stay long enough that it gets used.

Purpose is not invented. It is excavated.

We do not sit in a room and make up who your company is. A purpose you did not already have is a slogan, and everybody can tell. It is already in your building. Somebody has to dig it out and say it clearly.

THE PART MOST OWNERS DO NOT EXPECT

YOU SEE THE EVIDENCE BEFORE YOU SEE THE WORDS

What stops a capable owner from claiming what his company is worth is not vocabulary and not nerve. It is that he cannot confirm the words are true, complete, and not the same thing his competitor just said. He cannot verify that from inside. Nobody can.

YOUR PEOPLE

What the people who have been with you longest actually said.

YOUR CUSTOMERS

What they reported, in their own words.

THE MARKET

What is observably true, not what the trade press says.

WHAT IT DOES NOT SUPPORT

Named plainly. If the evidence will not carry a claim you wanted, we tell you and it does not ship.

Then you meet the language that came out of it. You are not judging our writing. You are confirming a conclusion you can trace.

THE ROOM

WE ASK, THEN WE LISTEN

You are the most important person in the room. We ask the question nobody has asked you, and we listen longer than is comfortable.

Twenty years of vocational ministry before a day of agency work.
The room is the least copyable thing we have, and it was built somewhere else, over two decades.

TWO STANDARDS, EVERY PAGE

COULD A COMPETTOR SIGN THIS UNCHANGED? CAN WE SHOW WHERE IT CAME FROM?

If the first answer is yes, or the second is no, it is not finished and it goes back.

Output that could belong to anyone is not a lesser version of our work. It is a different product, and we do not sell it.

THREE THINGS COME OUT OF IT

SOMETHING USABLE

THE MANIFESTO

The full document. It governs every decision you make about how this company presents itself.

THE PLAIN PAGE

All of it on one sheet. Printed, posted, and handed to every new hire on day one. This is the version that actually circulates.

THE BRAND FILE

Built to load into your AI tools. Your competitors have the same tools. What they do not have is anything worth putting into them.

THEN WE STAY LONG ENOUGH THAT IT GETS USED

A DOCUMENT THAT IS RIGHT AND UNOPENED HAS PRODUCED NOTHING

More than half of our own clients historically failed to apply the work after delivery. That is not a client failing. If a deliverable fails at adoption most of the time, the deliverable is incomplete. So accountability is included rather than assumed.

HANDBOOK

How to use it, and what to do in the first thirty days.

THIRTY DAYS

Early enough to catch a document nobody opened.

NINETY DAYS

Late enough that real decisions have come up, and we ask which ones you ran against it.

SIX COACHING SESSIONS

Through a partner organization. Ongoing coaching is not our strength, so we partnered rather than pretended.

ONE ACCOUNTABLE PARTY

WE THROW THE BALL AND WE TAKE THE SACK.

We own the message. Specialists execute, and every one of them is handed the same document. A specialist at every position, and one phone number when something goes sideways.

WHERE THIS CAME FROM

TWENTY YEARS OF ASKING PEOPLE WHAT THEY ARE WORTH

Twenty years in full-time vocational ministry, from the San Francisco Bay Area to Houston, to Sandpoint Idaho, to Virginia. In 2021 we resigned and moved to Argyle with four young children.

Matthew took a temporary job selling roofing. Sixteen months in he was fired without warning and his earned commission was withheld. He has described what followed as one life dying and another being raised.

THEN HE SAID IT OUT LOUD

"EVERY PERSON ON THIS PLANET
CARRIES A MESSAGE. WE WANT TO HELP THEM DISCOVER WHAT IT IS AND SHARE IT WITH THE WORLD."

That became the name. When we realised the same thing was true of organizations, we knew we had a business. Founded January 2023, in Argyle, Texas.

MARCH 2024

WE HAD RUN OUT OF CLIENTS AND RUN OUT OF MONEY.

The electric bill went unpaid and the power was shut off. We believed we were about to close. Then the largest deal we had ever seen arrived out of nowhere, at the midnight hour. It has happened twice more since, and each time what arrived was larger than anything we had done before.

We tell you that because it is why we can hold a standard when money is short, and why we will tell you the true thing instead of the comfortable one.

FROM FOUR STRUCTURED CLIENT SURVEYS, SEPTEMBER 2026

WHAT CLIENTS SAY AFTERWARD

"I am considerably more confident speaking about my business publicly now."

MARION FITNESS AND NUTRITION

"I used to never share my work. I learned it was good and that people wanted to see it, so I started showing them."

MJM PROPERTIES

"We came for marketing. What we got was help identifying the real challenges in the business and a plan to resolve them."

ART WHEEL STUDIO

AND WHAT THE EVIDENCE DOES NOT YET SUPPORT

Two of four clients surveyed report revenue they can attribute directly. One believes he would have got there on his own, just slower. We hold ourselves to the same standard we are about to hold your claims to, so you are hearing both halves.

THE RETURN

THE LEADER GETS HIS LIFE BACK.
THE HOUSE COMES INTO ORDER.
THE VALUE BECOMES VISIBLE.
THE MATH CHANGES.
THE WORK OUTLIVES THE OWNER.

It arrives at adoption, not at delivery. Anyone who tells you results begin the day the files are handed over is overselling, and will be held to it ninety days later.

LET'S BOOK THE FIRST SESSION.

Everyone who holds a piece of the truth in one room, the evidence assembled before a word is written, and a document your whole company can finally use.
